

"Daisy"

A discreet gem, a precious jewel, the Delance watch « Daisy » is a miniature masterpiece created by an artist-engraver. With infinite precision, she has etched a field of miniature marguerites on the gold casing. A bouquet of daisies painted on the white pearl face gives this refined watch a gentle touch of springtime. The twisted gold bracelet, studded with diamonds, illuminates the perfect beauty of this precious time-piece.

The given name Daisy – pearl

Derived from English « day's eye », the first name « Daisy » refers to the marguerite. Its Greek origin is the word « margaritês », which means pearl.

Daisy is a fighter, ever ready to face any challenge and furnish any and all efforts necessary to get to the top. Because she is sure of herself, she doesn't hesitate to take on large projects. Always in search of the best, she does not like others to keep her from finding it and can be seen as authoritarian. She is frequently viewed as funny in company, and she very much likes to help those she cares about.
